Ice Follies Nears End of S. F. Run

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 17.—With their visit cut short by demands for four appearances, the Ice Follies, now at Winterland in San Francisco, will soon set out for the East and waypoints.

The dazzling ice revue which has enthralled some 300,000 persons, is in its last two weeks here. The show completed its 14th week Aug. 17.

Winterland, at Post and Steiner Sts., has been transformed into a palace of ice, with snow scenes and an ice floor. Glittering costumes, intricate lighting and special music contribute to the spectacular effect. Combined in the show are athletic skill, rhythmic beauty, stunning group effects, ice ballets and pantomimes, comedy stunts, burlesques, acrobatic skating thrillers and novelties.

The Ice Follies will have another matinee Saturday. Reservations may be made by calling Winterland, Walnut 0112.

The earth makes a circuit around the sun once a year, but it takes the distant planet Pluto 248 years to make it.

RFC in Redwood City

NICKEL-A-WEEK GIFTS SOUGHT
BY CIVIC COMMITTEE FOR NEW

Redwood City has an "RFC." But instead of having for its objective the loaning of millions, as has the Reconstruction Finance Corp., Redwood City's RFC has the objective of gathering nickels—to finance development of the new recreation center which the city council has agreed to acquire.

This was made known today when Ole S. Oleson, chairman of the new group, announced that a Recreation Fund Committee (RFC) had been formed to raise money for the sports center, which the council has agreed to buy on condition private means be employed for financing its development.

Immediate goal of the committee is to get as many Redwood City citizens as possible to pledge 5 cents a week toward the recreation center for one year.

"We have a population in Redwood City of some 14,000 persons, and if only 2000 of them agree to give a nickel a week, we could raise more than $5000 within a year to develop this recreation center," Oleson explained.

LARGER SUMS WELCOMED
Although a nickel a week is desired from as many people, young or old, male or female, as possible, larger or smaller sums may be contributed.

It is the plan of the committee, which is composed at present of 15 men, mostly members of Redwood City's three service clubs, that citizens belonging to organizations will contribute through them.

In this connection, Oleson explained, all organizations are urged to consider at their earliest opportunity an invitation to join in this movement. "We hope that every organization will see its way clear to pledge its members to give a nickel a week toward the recreation center," Oleson declared. "That insignificant sum won't break anybody; yet if everybody comes into this plan, we could raise a surprising amount within just a year. Why, if we could get 5000 of our citizens in this 'game,' we would have over $12,000 at the end of this year."

BALL DIAMOND FIRST
The recreation commission plans

Here's How Plan Works

Each citizen of Redwood City who wishes to participate is asked to covenant with himself to give 5 cents a week (more or less) for a year, toward development of the Redwood City Recreation Center.

The money can be contributed at meetings of clubs, lodges, associations or organizations to which he belongs, or may be dropped in coin boxes in various stores around the town, to be designated later.

Money will be collected by secretaries of the various organizations from the membership and turned over to James P. Hagan, treasurer of the Recreation Fund Committee (RFC) at the Bank of America, 2100 Broadway, of which he is manager. It will be deposited to the credit of the City of Redwood City to be spent only by the city council on recommendation of the Redwood City Recreation Commission. Money deposited in cans in the stores will be collected by members of the RFC and turned over to Treasurer Hagan.

No records of an individual's contributions will be kept except by secretaries of the organizations to which he belongs. The secretary of the RFC, Kenneth L. Bowen, Tribune editor, will keep a record of all sums collected from the organizations or from the stores.

Names of clubs, associations, lodges, organizations participating will be published in the Tribune as they agree to join in the plan. Business houses will be welcome to participate, employees agreeing to give 5 cents a week toward the recreation center.

Any person belonging to more than one organization will not be expected to contribute through more than one; he can decide through which organization he will make his contributions.

Further information may be obtained from the secretary or treasurer or from Ole S. Oleson, of Oleson & Son Motors, president of the RFC. Speakers will be furnished for organizations to explain the plan.

San Carlos' First Store Building Sold

SAN CARLOS, Aug. 14.—San Carlos' first business building, the cafe and apartments at 612 El Camino Real where Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Spaulding's Six Twelve Club is located, has been sold by Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Webb to William F. Klay, Palo Alto contractor. Mrs. Webb built the structure in 1921 and operated the restaurant herself most of the time until three years ago, becoming widely known for her cooking. The Webbs, who live at 791 Chestnut St., are negotiating for a ranch at Boulder Creek and may leave soon to make their home there.

Annual Used Car Clearance Begins

Concentrating his entire manpower and resources into creating a notable month and a half of value-giving, K. B. Towne of Towne Motor Co., Redwood City, this week announced the start of his annual used car clearance sale. The event will be highlighted by special displays of reconditioned and guaranteed merchandise bearing radically lowered prices. The clearance sale will continue through Sept. 30.

"It is a fact that our 'R. & G.' used cars—that is, reconditioned and guaranteed used cars—take the guess-work out of used car buying," the local dealer stated. "Add seasonal low prices to this basic protection and it is evident that now is the time to save substantially on dependable cars."

Building up a wider selection of used cars for the clearance event has occupied much time on the part of the local dealership staff. Many of these cars satisfy the specifications of the famous "R. & G." written guarantee which means that they have been renewed to standards of fitness and are guaranteed under a money-back plan. Other cars are to be sold under the dealer's own "50-50" guarantee, pledging payment by the dealer under ordinary specified driving conditions, of half the cost of repair operations should they become necessary within 30 days after purchase.

Large Share of County's New Budget Goes for Welfare Service

Comparisons Made With Old

San Mateo County's new 1939-40 budget provides major financial support for relief and general functions, a generous helping for fixed charges, and a liberal pinch for promotional work.

The $2,016,124.76 applicable to the entire county falls in the following divisions:

1. $879,883.50 (exclusive of salaries) for social welfare, relief home, community hospital, unemployment relief and WPA co-operation. This is 43 per cent of the total budget.
2. $861,547.48 for general services (including all salaries) in the general fund, salary fund, and allowances for planning commission, Highway District 9, Highway District 10, courthouse construction and furnishing, and Colma Creek drainage. This is 42½ per cent of the total budget.
3. $232,763 to service fixed obligations (four bond issues, Sunnyvale naval base pledge) and for financial reserves (unbudgeted and general reserves). This is 11½ per cent of the total budget.
4. $41,930.78 for promotion (advertising, World's Fair, Floral Fiesta). This is 2 per cent of the total budget.

Traffic Plan Meets Favor

John M. Ratto, chairman of the streets committee of the San Francisco Board of Supervisors, announced today he would ask the San Francisco board to name a committee to consult with the San Mateo County board on Peninsula traffic problems.

Ratto made his announcement after receipt of an invitation from the San Mateo County supervisors to a two-county supervisory conference.

"This is a welcome invitation," Ratto said, "and while San Francisco's traffic problem is more than merely a matter of expediting ingress and egress to the Peninsula communities, it is still a phase which demands immediate attention."

"We can improve our traffic relationships with the Peninsula by improving traffic conditions in our own city, it goes without saying. And we can further speed up our

Peninsula connections by synchronizing traffic light on important arterials leading into the city.

Citrus production on a commercial scale is limited to the southern part of the United States, principally Florida, California, Texas, and Arizona.

New Industry For Coast Announced

Announcement of a new industry for the Pacific Coast was made in San Francisco last week by P. J. Herb, vice president and sales manager of the Pacific Coast Paper Mills, speaking before nearly 100 paper, grocer and drug jobbers from the San Francisco Bay Region.

The company's recently installed equipment in their plant at Bellingham, Wash., will bring increased employment in the production and distribution of the company's new M D sanitary napkin, first product of its kind ever manufactured in the West, Herb said.

Curt J. Joa, engineer and inventor of the new equipment, pointed out that the installation will enable wood pulp, formerly shipped East for manufacture, to be completed entirely on the West Coast, thus affecting new economies for customers.

Due to their past success with newspaper advertising, Vice President Herb announced that newspapers had been selected as the exclusive medium to carry the opening announcement of the new product, and that this newspaper would break the first announcement immediately.

The Belgian Congo is approximately the size of the 15 southern states of the United States.

S. F. NEWSPAPER FLAYS OWN CHAMBER ON PORT ACTION

Paul C. Smith, youthful general manager of the San Francisco Chronicle who is well known in San Mateo County and claims as his only "alma mater" Pescadero High School, from which he was graduated, is continuing in San Francisco to make journalistic history.

The 30-year-old "boy wonder" in the second of four articles on "The Way Out for America" proposed that President Roosevelt appoint an "All-American Council" of 25 members to "gather together round a conference table with this express intention:

"First, to establish a national unity of purpose by reaching agreement upon a clear, comprehensible definition of the principles and objectives of present-day American democracy, which definition shall be called The Doctrine of American Democracy, or simply The Doctrine; "Second, to solve the problem of mass unemployment within the framework of The Doctrine."

Although he explains that "perhaps some change in the list of proposed members is possible," Smith propose the following for members of the council:

U. S. Supreme Court Chief Justice Charles Evans Hughes; former President Hoover; John L. Lewis, CIO head; William Green, AFL president; Eleanor Roosevelt, wife of the president; Pres. Robert Gordon Sproul of the University of California; Pres. William G. Carey Jr. of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce; Pres. Howard

Cooley of the National Association of Manufacturers; Secy. of Commerce Harry L. Hopkins; Pres. Robert M. Hutchins of the University of Chicago; Publisher Roy W. Howard of Scripps-Howard Newspapers; Chairman Owen D. Young of General Electric Co. board; Harper Sibley, agriculturist and industrialist; Thomas J. Watson, president, International Chamber of Commerce; Jesse H. Jones, federal loan administrator; Morris Fishbein, editor, American Medical Association Journal; Pres. Nicholas Murray Butler of Columbia University; Pres. Charles A. Beardsley of American Bar Association; Edward R. Stettinius Jr., chairman of the board, U. S. Steel Corp.; Wetmore Hodges, rancher, industrialist and former Harvard professor; F. W. S. Knudsen of General Motors Corp.; Pres. J. J. Pelley of Association of American Railroads; Chairman George M. Harrison of Railway Labor Executives Association; Director Edward A. O'Neal of American Farm Bureau Federation; Comm. Stephen F. Chadwick of American Legion.

The all-time high for millionaires was set in 1929, when 513 persons in this country had an income of a million dollars or more.

Last Rites Held For Robert Eyre

Last rites were held in San Francisco on Monday for Robert M. Eyre, 66, retired capitalist and brother of Perry M. Eyre and Edward L. Eyre, both of Atherton. Mrs. Eyre died in San Francisco at his home at 1201 California St. Saturday night after an illness of three years which started when he suffered a stroke during a trip to Europe.

Member of a pioneer family, Mr. Eyre had been prominent in social and financial circles. He was a charter member of the Family Club, Woodside, and founded the club's "Everfaithful Orchestra," being known affectionately as the "millionaire trap drummer." His wife is the former Mrs. Camille Lytton White of Los Angeles. He leaves a step-daughter, Miss Jane White.

Some years past, Mr. Eyre was well known as a golfer and was secretary of the Northern California Golf Association.

If all the 4-H club members in the United States were to march single file, all in one long line, that line would be more than 700 miles long.

William Thorning Gains College Honor

William Thorning of Redwood City has won a place on the high scholarship roll of Washington State College for the Spring semester of 1939, President E. O. Holland has announced. To be eligible for this honor a student must have a grade average of 90 per cent while carrying a full college course, or earn 34 grade points.

Four hundred and sixteen students, more than 11 per cent of the enrollment, placed on the honor roll. Nine students earned 16 or more hours of "A."

Fiesta Entries Far Exceed Last Year's in Number and Quality

James Flood Returns To Forebears' Home

A $20,000 deed recorded late yesterday disclosed James Flood, yacht racer and vice president of the Flood Realty Co., plans to return to the home of his predecessors—the Flood Estate in Menlo Park. James Flood has purchased a $20,000 home in the Lindenwood Subdivision, where the great home known as Linden Towers was erected by the first James Flood in the late eighties. The ornate mansion was torn down and the property was sold to Flood Realty Co., which sponsored the subdivision. The $20,000 deed was recorded at request of California Pacific Title & Trust Co.

Novel Displays Are Expected

With more entries on file now than there were weeks before the opening date last year, San Mateo's annual fiesta which opens Sept. 21 at Bay Meadows will undoubtedly be the most spectacular flower show ever seen in the West. Manager Chester Lipman predicted today.

Besides the quantity of entries, the quality appears higher this year than previously. Lipman said, with all planning to do the unusual from a standpoint of beauty, size and originality.

Avansino-Mortensen Co., of San Bruno, one of the country's largest growers of variety cut flowers, intends to enter a display of orchids valued at $25,000.

At the E. W. McLellan fields at Colma more than 5,000 gardenias will be freshly picked for arrangement into a breath-taking display.

An exhibit of rarely seen potted plants and ferns will be entered by H. Plath and Company.

Noted throughout the world for their widespread distribution of "mums", the California Chrysanthemum Growers of Redwood City are already constructing a huge framework about which will be grouped and woven the largest single display of these flowers ever seen anywhere.

Rose fanciers will find it difficult to leave the Cypress Lawn Nursery display with its infinite variety of unusually perfect roses. And this will be only one of the rose exhibits.

From out of county the Roy Wilcox Co., of Montebello, is planning to show tropical and subtropical plants seldom seen in northern California.

Another tropical plant exhibitor, but not in the commercial grower classification, will be the Paul I. Fagan estate of Hillsborough. Andrew McDonald, supervisor of the estate, is bringing along to show perfection many importations from the Hawaiian Islands.

Other estates to be represented are the Daniel Koshland estate under the supervision of Stephen Vistica and the Mrs. Matt A. Harris estate. Paul Penna superintendent. Each of these well-known landscaping experts plan to utilize waterfalls, native trees and shrubbery in achieving informal garden effects of sylvan beauty.

With so many entries and such greatly elaborated plans there is little doubt that the ninth annual Fiesta will be the finest yet presented, Lipman believes.

Many Grow Beards In S. M. Contest

SAN MATEO, Aug. 17—Members of the San Mateo Junior Chamber of Commerce, sponsors, reported today that their beard-growing contest was attracting numerous entrants, judging from the fuzzy faces seen on the streets here.

The contest began on Tuesday and will end Sept. 16 at the Fiesta Fandango in San Mateo Junior College Gymnasium, where the winner will receive $15 and a gold cup. Merchandise awards will be given runners-up.

Chairman Ted Kutzer said all men in the county are eligible to compete in the event, set as a preliminary

NEWS

ENJOYING VACATION

MENLO PARK, Aug. 17—Dr. R. J. Gerlough is vacationing in the northern part of the state where he is fishing.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Boone and their pretty daughter, Betty, and Brownell More, a college student, are here on a visit to the former's mother, Irene Boone. The party motored from Tuscaloosa, Ala., the girlhood home of the local real estate woman. The Boones claim lineage of Daniel Boone, the famous southern pioneer.

The annual retreat for the pastors of the archdiocese of San Francisco began Tuesday at St. Patrick's Seminary and will continue until Saturday. Next week a retreat for the assistant priests will be held.

Robert Eyre, who died in San Francisco last week at the age of 66, was born and raised in Atherton. The old Eyre home on the highway adjoining the depot is now owned by Herbert Fleishacker.

John M. Welsh has returned from his vacation spent at Catalina Island where he landed a 10-pound fish, the 20-pound one having gotten away. Mr. Welsh will be a senior at Santa Clara University when it opens next week. He is preparing himself for the legal profession.

Dr. Harvey Slater of Palo Alto suffered a severe illness this week. His friends are much alarmed and fear for his recovery. The doctor has a large and lucrative practice in Palo Alto and Menlo Park. He was born and raised in La Grana, Ore., where his family is prominent. His brothers are members of the legal profession as also was his grandfather, Mrs. Fannie I. Kurtz, the city clerk, knew the family well. She became acquainted with him when he was graduated from college and admired his successful career ever since.

Sunday afternoon at 2:30 in the Church of the Nativity Edward Silva and Miss Marjorie Paris will exchange vows. Mrs. Esther Sino is to be the bridesmaid and her husband, H. Sino, will attend the groom. After a short honeymoon the couple will return to live in Menlo Park. Miss Paris is a very charming and pretty girl. She is a graduate of St. Joseph's School and Sequoia High School. Mr. Silva is also a graduate of the latter institution, where the romance began several years ago. Both young people have many friends that will crowd the edifice on their wedding day.

Mr. and Mrs. Tilden Anfinson of Chico, who have been spending a month in Capitola, visited their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Weed-on, this week. They were accompanied by their two children, Tilden Jr. and Marylyn. Mrs. Anfinson is the former Louis Thomas, a niece of Mrs. Weedon.

William H. Weedon and his grandson, Billy Lindquist, returned home from Bakersfield Wednesday. Mr. Weedon was looking over his business interests in the oil producing section about 12 miles out of Bakersfield. He will return to Bakersfield and Taft next week.

George Nunn, who has been confined in Palo Alto following an operation, will be forced to remain there for about a month longer. His many friends are glad to know that he is progressing as well as can be expected.

Rev. and Mrs. Charles Fritz and their son, Walter, have returned to their home on Laurel Ave. after spending a month in the high Sierras.

Realtors Stand
With Resolution
On Port Action

Declining to reconsider their recently-passed resolution pertaining to San Francisco Chamber of Commerce's refusal to assist the Port of Redwood City in its plea for establishment of terminal rates here members of the Redwood City District Real Estate Board Tuesday night upheld their stand that this district's legislators should fight San Francisco's attempts to secure control of its harbor.

Although the subject was discussed pro and con, according to Secty. Teddy Lauman, it was decided that the board would stick by its resolution which asked Assemblyman Harrison W. Call and Sen. Harry Parkman to oppose San Francisco in the legislature when it again tries to secure from the state the administration of its harbor.

The realtors also gave considerable discussion to two other topics, Secretary Lauman reported.

1. They agreed to ask the City council to change its recently adopted real estate sign ordinance to make it more like the one in effect at Atherton which permits one sign on any vacant lot without fees, either erected by the owner or by an exclusive agent with the owner's permission.

2. They decided to hold a public meeting next Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in the 2189 Broadway office of Walter Realty Co. to hear suggestions for improvement in the method of disposing of the city's repossessed lots. Secretary Lauman explained that the city's present system was considered by the real-

For Friendly Acres
No Power Rate Cut

To a possible question as to whether or not the Friendly Acres subdivision will share in the electric rate cuts announced Monday by the State Railroad Commission for certain rural areas, the answer is: "No."

Although the North Fair Oaks district immediately south of Redwood City and adjacent to it is included in the "Atherton suburban" territory where 878 customers will receive slashes amounting to an estimated total of $5600 a year, the Dumbarton Oaks, Friendly Acres and Belle Haven Subdivision (not to be confused with Belle Haven City) areas are not included, the Tribune determined today.

In Friendly Acres, one argument advanced for annexing to Redwood City at the vote Sept. 5 is that utility rates will be lower because cheaper rates prevail in municipalities than in rural areas. When it was announced that the "Atherton suburban" area was one included in the numerous districts receiving rate cuts, it was believed that Friendly Acres might thus profit without joining the city. However, the Tribune contacted the railroad commission, which furnished a description of the area affected. It was then determined at the office of County Recorder T. Clark Rice that Friendly Acres was outside the area, as were the other two districts mentioned.

The largest vegetable markets in the United States are, respectively, New York, Chicago, Los Angeles and Philadelphia.

U. S. snuff sales in 1938 were 32 times those in 1870.

Tommy Noble, Sequoia Athlete, Dies of Illness

A two-week illness ended in death Tuesday afternoon for Walter Thomas (Tommy) Noble Jr., popular Sequoia High School student and son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter T. Noble of Ferndale Way, Eureka Lake.

The youth, who was 16, succumbed at Mills Memorial Hospital at 5:15 p. m. of pneumonia.

Although a native of Minneapolis, Minn., where he was born Dec. 2, 1922, young Noble had lived in Redwood City with his parents for the past 13 years. At Sequoia, where he was a sophomore last year, he was noted for his swimming ability, being particularly adept in the backstroke, and played basketball. He belonged to the Block S Society. He also was a bowler of ability.

He was the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Weed of 157 Elwood St., Redwood City. A brother, James, also survives.

Drew School Rates High With Academics

Drew School, ably conducted for the past 31 years by John S. Drew, an alumnus of the University of California, can point to 1939 as one of its banner years in qualifying candidates for Annapolis, West Point, Coast Guard, Flying Field and Nautical School examinations. 17 of its students having passed for Annapolis alone. This season opens with an enrollment in these various categories fully up to that of former years, with promise of steadily growing attendance as the session proceeds. The long-sustained high quality of instruction has established the school in the estimate of officers of all services as one of the foremost and most efficient in the United States. A characteristic comment is one voiced by a general whose son entered Annapolis from Drew School, to the effect that "in both Annapolis and West Point your boys stood best."

Equally distinguished for high quality of instruction are the other departments of the school—the four-year high school course, accredited to the University of California; the accelerated course, completing preparation for college in two years, and grading up students who are behind schedule; the business course, which produces highly trained office secretaries and accountants, much sought by employers; the individual tutoring staff, expertly preparing for examinations of all sorts and strengthening in their work elementary, high school, and college students; the civil service classes, which prevailingly place their students high up in eligible lists; the elementary department, which readjusts children who may for any cause be out of stride and placed them in high school with much saving of time and firm grounding for lasting success in their educational careers; and the night department, which in continuous year-round session provides courses paralleling those of the day department.

Tilton To Take Over Route to New Zealand

Garner Gavel Used By Local VFW Post

If there was just a little bit more respect for the gavel wielded by Comm. C. E. Rudisill at Tuesday night's meeting of Corp. James Lindsay Wilson Post 2310, Veterans of Foreign Wars, there was a good reason.

Commander Rudisill was using for the first time a rosewood gavel sent to the post by John N. Garner, vice president of the United States, and used by the high official in the senate the week preceding July 2, according to a message sent with it by Mrs. Garner, the vice president's secretary.

In exchange for the Garner gavel, the local post plans to send him a redwood burl gavel being made by Past Comm. Joe S. Farr. It will be engraved by W. W. Hiltont, post member.

L. A. Barrett Named Mayor

BELMONT, Aug. 16.—Louis A. Barrett, a member of the board of trustees of Sequoia Union High School for four years and one of this town's most prominent and active citizens, is the new mayor of Belmont.

Barrett was named to the office Monday evening, following the resignation of Harold Danforth, who will move to his new home—a fruit ranch in the Los Altos hills—Aug. 25.

Succeeding Mayor Barrett on the city council will be Francis Kilheary, Belle Monti resident, who also is a member of the city planning commission. He will serve on the council until the next election in April of next year.

Barrett was named to the city council April 16, 1937, after the results of the councilmanic elections of the previous April (1936) were declared illegal. Superior Judge R. R. Syer of San Jose ruled Barrett was illegally defeated and that he, not incumbent James P. Halloran, was entitled to the post. Danforth, elected to the council for a four-year term at the Spring election of 1938, expressed "regret" in submitting his resignation. He had been active in numerous campaigns for civic betterment.

In addition to being a member of the Sequoia board, Barrett has

New Jobs Created at Redwood City Harbor

Applications Flood Office

Development of the Port of Redwood City as a shipping point for Santa Clara Valley fruit packers has created a number of new jobs for Redwood City residents.

Port Manager Walter F. Murphy disclosed today that he had been able to employ 15 men this week to handle the cases of canned fruit now being trucked to the harbor by Schuel & Co. from the firm's Sunnyvale cannery. The firm is shipping the canned goods here to be stored until the shipping season next winter. Between 150,000 and 200,000 cases will be stored in the new warehouse—enough cargo to load several large freighters.

The firm will continue shipping steadily for two weeks or more, Murphy expects. As a result of this new cargo for the port, the local harbor, now in its second year of operation, is a beehive of activity. Lumber boats are visiting the port regularly, sometimes two, three or more a week, and the Standard Oil Co. is shipping gasoline regularly to its new storage plant located at the port. The petroleum products are then distributed by tank truck or freight tanker to other substations on the Peninsula and in the Santa Clara and Salinas Valleys.

Port Manager Murphy disclosed also that although he had had difficulty Monday finding laborers to handle the fruit shipments to the port warehouse, the report in the Tribune of the new activity brought 173 applications for the jobs by Tuesday morning.

The port ran completely out of application blanks, and Murphy and his aides at the harbor were kept on the jump throughout the day accepting applications.

Tavern Owners Form Association

San Mateo County tavern owners have formed a unit of the Tavern Owners Assn. of California Inc., according to an announcement made today by John Charles Houlhan, executive secretary. More than 20 Peninsula taverns have requested membership.

Objectives of the association, Houlhan said, include reduction in number of licenses heretofore issued by the State Board of Equalization; elimination of cut-throat competition and the fly-by-night tavern operator who cares little or nothing about the morals of his community and the good of the liquor industry generally; to better conditions and establish members as reputable business men.

Monthly meetings will be held by the local chapter, which will elect a director to the statewide organization. Members will share in the group insurance plan and the purchasing plan of the California association. Originator and bonded broker of the group insurance plan is Royce Russell of San Mateo.

North Carolina is building a unique state park by restoring Pettigrew plantation as an example of ante-bellum plantation life.

Summer Visitor's Troth Revealed

WOODSIDE, Aug. 17—Formal announcement of the engagement of Miss Dorothy Franchi to Thomas Murphy was made at a tea given by the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. Thomas Franchi, upon the birthday anniversary of her daughter.

The affair to which 50 guests were bidden was held in the Rose Room Bowl at the Palace Hotel. Flowers were the keynote of decorations and favors and even the date of the wedding, Oct. 14, was announced with a flower arrangement.

Although the home of the betrothed couple is in San Francisco, the bride-to-be, particularly is well known here, having spent her summers here for the past 14 years. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Rosa Pitts.

ORNITHOLOGICAL NOTE
BUENOS AIRES (AP)—Santiago Maio, bird fancier, claims his cross between a Roller and a canary is the only black canary known in the western world.
